"NOBODY TO LOVE"
1-Reel Universal Comedy
Starring NEELY EDWARDS
and BERT ROACH

Ned's former box-car buddy, Brown, urges him to marry, and advises him to flirt with the first good-looker he sees. Ned, after several attempts, flirts with a girl who turns him over to a cop. The asphalt Arab is fined, but Brown pays it, and sends Ned up to his house to wait for him, as he has phoned his wife he is bringing an old friend home for supper.

Mrs. Brown comes in and recognizes Ned as the masher, screams for help, and the janitor turns him over to the same cop. This time the fine is fifty dollars instead of thirty, but Brown comes through again. He sends Ned down to his office to wait for him. Mrs. Brown sees him there and yells for aid, Ned, in consequence, takes another trip to the Judge, who fines him one-hundred dollars.

Brown comes to the rescue again, bails him out, and pilots him home. Mrs. Brown seeing the supposed masher in her home, has a fit. After several amusing complications, explanations are forthcoming, and everything ends amicably.
